

I am writing to beg that the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law not be lessened with a Federal law. Our life at home has been our own again without all of the harassing daily telephone calls. It is a pleasure to eat dinner with the family without someone calling wanting to sell windows or change your phone company. I would get up to 15 calls per week, and now I may have one.